The Aftermath of Suffrage
What Happened After the Vote Was Won?

An International Conference
Friday 24 and Saturday 25 June, 2011
Humanities Research Institute, University of Sheffield

This conference seeks to shed new light on gender and political history in the post-suffrage period by considering how the contested legacies of both women’s suffrage and universal suffrage reflected and refracted contemporary debates about political representation, democratic reform, gender relations, the sexual divisions of labour in politics, and women’s very gradual inclusion in politics.

There will be a combination of plenary and parallel sessions, with plenty of opportunity for informal discussion.

All are welcome. Confirmed speakers include Adrian Bingham, Myriam Boussahba-Bravard, Karen Hunt, June Hannam, Angela V. John, Jon Lawrence, Helen McCarthy, June Purvis, Mari Takayanagi, Pat Thane, Philippe Vervaekte, Valerie Wright, and the conference organisers, Richard Toye and Julie Gottlieb.
